

IN FUNDING NEW JERSEY GOVERNMENT SERVICES, THE BURDEN FALLS ON PROPERTY TAXPAYERS

51%

Local Property
Taxes

L 111809160

New Jersey's over-reliance on regressive property taxes to fund local needs can be traced to a history of municipal revenues being diverted. There was once a time when local services were funded by many sources beside the regressive property tax. To learn how and when municipal revenue sources were diverted visit http://www.njslom.org/letters/Property_Tax_Facts111414.html

49%

Major
State
Taxes

L 111809160

(Source of data: DCA for 2014 property tax levies and OLS for FY 2014 State Taxes.)

DON'T PASS THE BUCK TO NJ'S PROPERTY TAXPAYERS!

The Burden is Way Off Balance.

27%

School Property Taxes

23%

State
Income Tax

16%

State
Sales Tax

15%

Municipal Purposes
Property Tax

9%

County
Property Tax

5%

State
Corporate
Business Tax

5%

Other
State
Taxes

New Jersey State League
of Municipalities

(609) 695-3481 • www.njslom.org